SEATING: Seat location is determined by the Cal Poly Ticket Office on a best-seats-available basis. When filling your order, the Ticket Office may change the location of your seats without notice to a less expensive section if your requested section of the auditorium is unavailable. Your account will be credited accordingly. In the unlikely event that your requested section is sold out, please indicate your alternate seating preference in the section at right.

Orders contingent on specific seating will not be accepted. The Ticket Office will attempt to accommodate any special seating needs or preferences you may have, such as the right or left side of the auditorium, aisle seating, other subscribers with whom you wish to sit, wheelchair seating or access to sign language interpreting. (Signed interpretation must be arranged at least two weeks in advance of any show.)

PATRON NOTES:

- Drinks from the lobby will be permitted in the seating area during select performances.
- Please turn off all electronic devices to enjoy live performances in the moment.
- When using fragrances, please consider audience members who might have heightened scent sensitivities.
